

The UC San Diego Media Teaching Lab now offers video equipment checkout to the general student population!

Located in the Communication building, the Media Teaching Lab is a center for instruction in film and video technology at UC San Diego. On the first floor of the Communication building, the Lab's Equipment Checkout Room offers a limited selection of video and sound equipment to any student producing videos for class projects.

Checkout Policy Basics

- The equipment checkout room is open Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- Checkout period is 24 hours. Friday to Monday counts as one day. For example, equipment borrowed at 11 a.m. Friday is due at 11 a.m. on Monday.
- Equipment must be used for producing materials related to coursework at UC San Diego. Equipment is only available when classes are in session.

Available Equipment

Canon XA10 Camera

Shotgun Microphone

Small Tripod

How To Check Out Equipment

1. Sign up for equipment checkout at the Media Teaching Lab office in Communication 225 Monday through Friday between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.. or email medialab@ucsd.edu.
2. Reserve equipment at ucsdmedialab.tumblr.com/reservations. Reservations may be made up to 1 week in advance.
3. Pick up at the Equipment Checkout Room in Communication 111.

The complete equipment policy can be found online at acms.ucsd.edu/mtl-equipment.